Number of criminal cases

(Report the total number of new sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and/or stalking-related cases filed during the current reporting period.)

Misdemeanor and felony domestic violence cases include any assaults, battery, vandalism, or other offenses that occurred in a domestic violence incident. Your state law or tribal code does not have to name the offense “domestic violence” for it to be counted here. Similarly, sexual assault and stalking cases should be counted under the appropriate sexual assault or stalking offense listed below (e.g., felony sexual assault), even if your state law uses another name for these types of offenses, such as “sexual battery” or “harassment.”

Judicial monitoring

(Report the number of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and/or stalking offenders whose cases were reviewed by the court for compliance with conditions of probation or other court-ordered conditions, or for violations of those conditions, during the current reporting period. Also report the total number of individual review hearings conducted. The number of review hearings is the number of individual hearings held for each offender, even when that offender is reviewed during the same monitoring sessions as other offenders. For example, if 10 offenders were reviewed at the same three sessions during the reporting period, the number of offenders reviewed would be 10 and the number of review hearings conducted would be 10 multiplied by 3, or 30.)

Disposition of violations

(Report the number of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and/or stalking cases in which there were dispositions of violations during the current reporting period. The violation does not have to have occurred during this reporting period, only the disposition. A case may be counted more than once if there were multiple violations.)

(Optional) Additional information

(Use the space below to discuss the effectiveness of probation activities funded or supported by your STOP Program sub-grant and to provide any additional information you would like to share about those activities beyond what you have provided in the data above. An example might include a decrease in caseload and higher number of contacts with offenders as a result of funding a specialized domestic violence probation officer.)
